

FREE INFORMATION SESSION FOR BUSINESSES: Presented by the Ministry of Labour

EVENT DETAILS:

Thursday, June 6 – 10:00-11:30am

Location of the event: Sheridan College Community Employment Services
71 West Drive, Unit 29
Brampton, Ontario L6T 5E2

An Employment Standards Officer will review the key principles your business should understand about the ESA, and be available to answer questions.

WHY ATTEND?

There are many changes made with the protected leaves, hours of work agreements, overtime averaging and poster requirement in the workplace.

Most recent was Bill 66, Restoring Ontario's Competitiveness Act, 2019.

Employment Standards are enforced under the Employment Standards Act, 2000 (ESA), which sets out the minimum standards that employers and employees must follow. It is your obligation to understand your rights and responsibilities under the Act.

The Ministry of Labour, through its Employment Standards Program:

- enforces the ESA and its regulations
- provides information and education to employers and employees, making it easier for people to understand and comply voluntarily
- investigates possible violations
- resolves complaints

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Topic is relevant to all levels of management

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- What you should know about the Ontario Employment Standards Act
- Rules and regulations for you and the employee
- Role of the Employment Standards Officer
- Enforcement and Offences
